

An Afternoon about Simplicity - A View into a Life Lived on the Edge

Hanne T. Fisker is living a life in the space between, where everything is turned upside down and nothing is what it seems or set in stone... a life where fierce honesty, creativity and the mystery of paradoxes is the key elements. A life where listening is essential and where resonance is the compass from where she navigates her life with very little room for "shoulda, gotta, oughta do". A human being who doesn't have a plan, there are no holy cows and who's favourite quote is: "There are no rules around here, we are trying to accomplish something" (Thomas A. Edison) Maybe she really is on to something or maybe she is just a very odd person leading an odd life.... Regardless, you are hereby invited to an afternoon where the doors will open into another person's reality, life and wanderings, inner as well as outer...

We have invited Hanne to come and spent an afternoon in a mix of stillness and conversation where we have the opportunity to ask her questions about her life.
